

Tess Hochstein

tesshoch@gmail.com

Education

Central Michigan University, Mount Pleasant, MI December 2014
Bachelor of Fine Arts in Broadcast & Cinematic Arts

Production Experience

Artistic Director for 2014 Doritos Crash the Super Bowl Commercial Entry October 2014-November 2014

- Designed and executed old-age makeup for talent.
- Collaborated with director in getting props and costumes bought and ready for shoot.
- Responsible for keeping continuity with props, actors and costumes during shoot.

Artistic Director for short film, "Analogous" January 2014- May 2014

- Designed and executed alien make-up for main actress and crowd of aliens
- Created costumes and props for talent and on set details
- Conceptualized and executed artistic detail and shot continuity

Hands-on Course Work at CMU

Stage Makeup and Advanced Stage Makeup Classes January 2013- May 2014

- Knowledge of color theory and experience mixing makeup to make new hues and shades.
- Contoured the face to appear differently shaped with use of highlight and shadow.
- Created life-cast faces and busts for prosthetic sculpting and mold creations.
- Sculpted clay on casted face into prosthetic positive and created a negative mold and prosthetic creation.
- Applied and blended prosthetics to self and others to create final character makeup.
- Created temporary Crepe hair facial pieces and applied them.
- Manipulated tissue and latex to create an aged character look.
- Planned character makeups with sketches and written analyses.

Internship

Doner Advertising, Southfield MI September 2014- December 2014

The Underground

- Assisted editors in a variety of ways, whether usual protocol for projects or miscellaneous tasks.
 - Protocol included setting up projects for editors by creating files on servers, maintaining organization of all assets throughout the project, and mastering the final project upon completion.
 - Miscellaneous tasks included various jobs such as editing on Photoshop, organizing hard-drives to be sent out for color correction, and searching the Internet for potential video and audio for client reels.
- Helped out crew for internal company video shoots on location or green screen to set up, run, and put away equipment, as well as assist with talent.
- Gained experience to adjusting quickly to new situations to provide a hand to producers, editors, and assistants.

Television Professional Development

Moore Hall Television (MHTV) Program Creation

Central Premiere Productions- MHTV Special Programming February 2014

48 Hour Film Competition

- Provided characters with props and make-up.
- Operated boom microphone and assisted with lighting design.
- Conceptualized a short film with team to include provided required elements
- Assisted with script writing.

Customer Service

Ulta Beauty Retail Store, Troy, MI July 2014 – October 2014

Beauty Advisor

- Ran the register to checkout customers and handle returns with friendliness and efficiency.
- Assisted customers throughout the store, in locating and selecting merchandise specific to their needs.
- Unloaded shipments and restocked sales floor to ensure full stock in a variety of products for customers.